THE LIBEL CASE.

We have received within the past two days quite a number of letters from correspondents, dealing with the recently decided Minimitt v. Fraser-Smith libel suit—chiefly inquiring as to what action will be taken to over-rule the one-sided and altogether unjustifiable verdict of the jury of nondescripts who represented British Justice on the occasion, and when active operations will be commenced. However desirous we may be of retaining the full confidence of and keeping in touch with our readers on every matter of general interest which may become the subject of public controversy in this journal, it must be admitted that exceptions may arise when personal considerations have to be very carefully studied. And it is so in this particular matter. We have not the slightest intention of tamely submitting to the iniquitous verdict delivered by the jury last Tuesday night; but we are likewise just as averse to exposing for the special benefit of Mr. Jno. JOSEPH FRANCIS, Q.C., and his worthy satellite DENNY, solicitor, etc., etc., the plan of campaign we have formed to have that verdict rendered nugatory. We have "hung up our banners on the outward wall," and there they will hang until our vindication in this notorious business has been obtained and fully recognised. As the case may be said to be still practically sub judice we are bound in common honesty to refrain from making any comments or entering into any details; but our friends may rest assured that no stone will be left unturned, at whatever risk and expense, to have the whole truth of this most degrading scandal fully and clearly exposed to the light of public opinion. Thousands of dollars have already been unsuccessfully expended in endeavoring to get at the truth, and no doubt thousands more will be required before our mission can be successfully accomplished; but it is a long lane that has no turning, and, thoroughly convinced of the integrity of our cause, we mean to fight to the bitter end—and WE SHALL WIN, in spite of all the concentrated influences that have so dishonorably been brought forward to stem the honest course of justice in this colony.

TELEGRAMS.

FURTHER DISTURBANCES IN BRAZIL.

LONDON, December 22nd.
Disturbances continue in the province of Rio Grande, the Federal troops fighting against the National Guard. The result is unknown, owing to the telegraph lines having been cut.

OBITUARY.

The Duke of Devonshire.
[Owing to this death the Tory Party will lose the valuable services of Lord Hartington in the House of Commons.—ED.]

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

We take this opportunity of very heartily wishing our readers, one and all,

A MERRY CHRISTMAS.

THERE will be no issue of the Hongkong Telegraph on the 25th (Christmas Day) and 26th (Boxing Day) inst., as we desire on these days to give our hard-worked staff a few hours recreation. On and after Monday next this journal will be quite up to its old form. The rumours that have been industriously circulated these past two days by interested persons—are you listening?—"Brownie"—do the effect that the Editor of this journal intends shortly shaking the dust of Hongkong off his feet, are absolutely without foundation; no amount of interested opposition can drive us from following our policy of independent criticism in dealing with crying public abuses, and our colours have been nailed to the mast, where they will remain until wrong has been exposed and right thoroughly vindicated.

At the Magistracy to-day twenty-four gamblers were fined $5 each for having more money than sense.

A REGULAR meeting of Diligent Lodge of Instruction will be held in Freemasons' Hall, Zealand Street, on Thursday, the 31st inst., at 5 for 5.30 p.m. precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

WILL our many correspondents who have sent us offers of pecuniary assistance to defray the damages and costs in the recent libel case, kindly await further developments? We thank one and all most heartily, but as our future action in the case has not yet been finally decided on, it is better to "go slow" in the meantime.

THE master of the Nova Scotia barque Velocity, Capt. Roger Martin, was charged on remand at the Police Court to-day with having in his possession eighteen packages of prepared opium, or 11,000 taels, worth about $5,000, on board his ship, without a certificate from the Farmer. Mr. J. J. Spooner proved the discovery of the opium, which the Captain said he had been ordered to transport there with directions to transport it into a schooner which was to be met in mid-ocean, in a certain latitude and longitude. The importation of prepared opium into Honolulu was forbidden. On reaching the point specified, the Velocity hove to and waited 24 hours, burning blue lights at night, but no schooner came, and as the Chinese passengers grumbled loudly at the delay, the barque had to go on her course to Hongkong. This statement was held to be no excuse for contravention of the law, and a fine of $250 was imposed, and the opium forfeited.

PETER SINCLAIR, whose prosecution was described as that of a vagrant, was brought up at the Edinburgh City Police Court the other week—before Sheriff Ormiston—on a charge of being drunk and disorderly in Princes' Street; further, with breaking four panes of glass in a cell window at Waverley Market Police Office, where he was detained in custody. He admitted the charge, then at once began to recite the following verses, causing some merriment in Court:—

The drunken is kicked, he's called, and he's dogged.
He's chased and he's robbed with his pretty well dogged.
He's once in an inn, he's twice in a row,
For he's in the inn, he's in the row.
For he's in the inn, he's in the row, he's in the row,
The drunken is kicked, he's called, and he's dogged.
He's chased and he's robbed with his pretty well dogged.
He's once in an inn, he's twice in a row,
For he's in the inn, he's in the row.
For he's in the inn, he's in the row, he's in the row,
The drunken is kicked, he's called, and he's dogged.
He's chased and he's robbed with his pretty well dogged.
He's once in an inn, he's twice in a row,
For he's in the inn, he's in the row.
For he's in the inn, he's in the row, he's in the row,
